

CONTRIBUTORS/COLLABORATEURS

Frank Guttman is professor emeritus of Pediatric Surgery at McGill University and former head of the department at the Montreal Children's Hospital. In medicine, he is the author of over 100 papers and eleven book chapters. Since his retirement, he has earned an MA in history from McGill University. His main interest is in Quebec history.

Esther Carmel-Hakim, a member of Kibbutz Ramat HaShofet, is a lecturer in Land of Israel Studies at the University of Haifa and at the Jezreel Valley Academic College. Her doctoral dissertation deals with Women's Agricultural Training in the Yishuv. At present, she is researching Zionist women's organizations.

Steven Lapidus, former co-curator of the Montreal Holocaust Memorial Centre, is currently pursuing his Ph.D. in the Department of Religion at Concordia University. His dissertation focuses on the history and evolution of the Montreal Jewish Community Council.

Loren Lerner, professor of Art History at Concordia University, edited Afterimage: Evocations of the Holocaust in Contemporary Canadian Arts and Literature/Rémanences: Evocations de l'Holocauste dans les arts et littérature canadiens contemporains (Montreal, 2002). She has curated the exhibitions, Memories and Testimonies/Memoires et Témoignages (Montreal, 2002) and Sam Borenstein (Montreal, 2005).

Joshua D. MacFadyen is a Ph.D. candidate in history at the University of Guelph. He is writing a dissertation on the linen industry in Canada, and his interests include the history of ethnic groups and immigration in Canada. He has written on Irish immigrants and on the Jewish community in Québec.

Benjamin Schlesinger, professor emeritus at the Faculty of Social Work of the University of Toronto, is the author or editor of 26 books, some with Rachel Schlesinger. He is a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.

Rachel Schlesinger is a senior scholar at the Division of Social Sciences, York University and a member of the executive committee of Centre for Jewish Studies there. Her main area of research interest is gerontology with a focus on senior Jewish women.