In order to create a fitting memorial for distinguished Jewish historian Lloyd Gartner, who died in 2011, the Israel Branch of the Jewish Historical Society of England determined to create a volume complementing Gartner's classic study, The Jewish Immigrant in England, 1870–1914, which first appeared in 1960 and has gone through no less than three editions. As Gartner had examined the impact of Jewish immigrants in England, the volume's contributors examine Jewish emigrants from Britain and the impact they made on Jewish communities in North America, Australia and New Zealand, Africa (South Africa and Rhodesia), Russia, and Israel. The chapter on Canada (pp. 43–58) is written by Dr. Susan Landau-Chark. The book also contains a useful bibliography of Gartner's publications.
